Addington, of the said district, hath deposited in this, office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit: Poetical Quotations: being a Complete Dictionary of the most Elegant Moral, Sublime, and Humorous Passages in the British Poets. The speculative may here find experience; the flattered, truth; the diffident, resolution; the presumptuous, modesty; the oppressor, mercy; the proud, humility; and the powerful, justice. Youth and age may improve equally by consulting it: - the one it directs - the other it admonishes: Whilst it amends the heart, it informs the head, and is, at the same time, the rule of virtue, and the standard of poetical eloquence. - Hayward. By John F. Addington. In Four Volumes. In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and also to the act entitled, An act supplementary to an act, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving,...
