Excerpt: . house organ of The Denver Rock Drill Manufacturing Company, Keepintouch by name, is showing some of the series of advertisements which have been used in a successful campaign, which has produced splendid returns in spite of the fact that this scries was entirely contrary to the conventional traditions of trade-journal mechanical advertising. This advertising is the work of Joseph Sampson, Advertising Manager. A particularly choice piece of commercial work may be seen in The Story of Span-Umbrian Furniture, prepared by the J. Walter Thompson Company, of New York and Chicago, for the Berkey and Gay Furniture Company, of Grand Rapids, Mich. It is devoted to the revival of the style of the Spanish Renaissance in furniture, and the decorations and coloring of this booklet have been carried out very appropriately and consistently. The cover deserves particular praise. That the best calendars are not...
