In the Bushwick neighborhood of Brooklyn, New York the area is under change with many of the white homeowners and businesses moving out. African Americans along with Hispanic immigrants are replacing them. The neighborhood is economically depressed. There are many confrontations between the ethnic groups especially in the schools. Nick Colombo is a teenager lured into his cousin's gang and becomes involved with a robbery of an automobile belonging to the high school coach. The entire gang along with Nick is arrested for the crime. All the members except Nick are sent to jail. Nick is incarcerated at a Juvenile Detention Center, where he must spend the next three years in isolation due to threats upon his life. In 1967, Nick is released and back at his old high school where he is ostracized by most of the student body. His only friends are Hispanic and African Americans, the exception being the head cheerleader Kimberly O'Donnell who is attracted to Nick. The only problem is her boyfriend Brett Dickerson who is captain...
