I think that the excellent is a human perspective. so that children too ordinary and simple childhood. If we deliberately do not belong to all children. imposed in the body of the child. we will force a is original very gifted saplings. will ruin the child's talent and opportunities for healthy development. Here to talk about character has a peculiar angle. I think many interesting case. let us think together about how to see the uniqueness of the child. rather than let him succumb to the expectations of parents and society in the confusion of values. Each child is unique. and unique is the best character. he does not need people like or agree with everyone. let the children to develop according to their own characteristics. their own strengths. child inner harmony and happiness. is The most important character. Executive Summary appointment children: Attitude is the key: 7 to 15-year-old child. a time when learning of Personality and Ability period is the period of the most important foundation of life. but often parents are most easy to overlook the most sense of powerlessness and frustration period.
