Arrival at Bombay--Cotton cultivation and transport--Road-making--Friction with Calcutta Public Works Department--Conference of Engineers at Poona--Death of Lord Elgin--Sir John Lawrence Governor-General--Freres Minute on Frontier Policy--Relations of Lawrence and Frere--Kattywar--Income-tax repealed--Minute on Local Taxation. Freres time was so fully taken up in public business with Lord Elgin during his last days at Calcutta that he had little leisure for leave-taking. The Parsee community presented him with an address of congratulation on his new appointment, which bore testimony to his influence in bringing about improved relations between the European and native communities. The Civil servants and leading people wished to give him a farewell dinner; but the Governorship of Bombay being a high prize, and one rarely conferred on a member of the India Civil Service, he conceived that his appointment to it might have raised some feelings of disappointment in the minds...
