Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Miracle at the Pound About this book- A truly inspirational book that describes the miracle within us all to transform our dream into reality. Written through the eyes and feelings of dogs trapped in a kill pound it illustrates how, through responsibility and leadership, not only can dog shelters become no kill but we can change our own lives and environment. A charming story with a great lesson for business, society and ourselves. Martha Wyss, Founder, Friends of Animals Foundation, Los Angeles, California The Miracle at the Pound is a quick read that takes you inside a not-so-typical dog shelter at Christmas time. Tight and succinct with short chapters and terse sentences, dog dialog carries the plot. This tale, however, goes far beyond a simple Christmas story. It offers a light-hearted look at a very serious issue confronting each of us. Through an extended metaphor that parallels the life many of us face, see how these dogs change their world. The dog pound is a microcosm of the modern-day workplace, where all animals are not equal but...
