Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Drama, 1914, Vol. 4: A Quarterly Magazine Devoted to the Enjoyment of the Play and the Theatre The rise of Andreyev was unusually rapid even in an age of such precipitate changes as characterized the Russian Revolution. Scarcely more than ten years ago Gorky addressed the following question to the Moscow Courier: Who conceals his identity behind the pseudonym of Leonid Andreyev? The reply was: Leonid Andreyev. In 1898 the Courier published his first story, Bragamot and Garaska. In January, 1902, the Abyss appeared, and in August of the same year, In the Fog. These two stories forthwith carried Andreyev's fame from one end of Russia to the other. Their instantaneous and sensational success won for the hitherto unknown author almost as much attention and adoration as Gorky himself was then receiving when at the highwater mark of his popularity as a literary hero. The decade since the publication of the Abyss has been marked by important and far-reaching events for Russia. It was in that period that the Russian government suffered defeat at the hands of Japan, and that the Russian people suffered defeat at the hands of their government.
